

Devotion
6 September 2017

Jesus commissioned us to share his salvation with everyone!

Matthew 28: 18 - 20. Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

It is now twenty centuries later and God still has no other plan to spread his good news to the lost. He is still counting on people like you and me to tell others about his love for us in Christ. God still wants you and me and everyone else to proclaim the Gospel. He is counting on you and on me to do this most important of all work!

Jesus commissioned us, the church of God, to go and make disciples of all nations. He is speaking as the One who has all power and authority in heaven and on earth. He is speaking as the One who has the authority to give eternal life.

What Jesus wants, is more renewed and passionate followers to, with a sense of urgency, tell of his love and resurrection that all may believe in him and become God's children. Christ chooses to be with us, guarding us, protecting us and sharing his power with us when we join the 2000 year old family of disciple making followers.

No matter where we go and no matter what we face, Christ is right there beside us saying: "Surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." (Mat 28:20)